

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Citizens National Bank Expands Treasury Management Expertise to Help Business Clients Optimize Cash Flow and Financial Operations

Round Rock, TX – March 25, 2025 – Citizens National Bank (CNB) is pleased to welcome Angela Adams as Senior Vice President, Treasury Management, reinforcing its commitment to delivering tailored financial solutions that empower businesses to operate more efficiently and securely. With more than 25 years of experience in relationship and community banking, Angela will lead CNB's efforts to enhance treasury management services, helping business owners improve cash flow management, fraud prevention, and financial operations.

Angela's background in commercial lending, regional financial center management, and treasury management makes her uniquely positioned to assist business clients with the complex financial challenges they face. She will work closely with CNB's business banking clients to implement customized treasury solutions, ensuring they have the tools to optimize their working capital, streamline payment processing, and safeguard their funds from fraud.

"We are excited to welcome Angela to the CNB team," said Steven Wise, CEO of Citizens National Bank. "Her deep expertise in treasury management and relationship-driven approach will be instrumental in helping our business clients thrive. From improving cash flow to implementing fraud protection measures, Angela's leadership will directly impact our clients' financial success."

With the increasing demand for efficient digital banking tools, secure payment solutions, and proactive financial planning, Angela's role will be crucial in guiding businesses toward sustainable growth and financial stability. Whether helping a small business optimize its receivables and payables or assisting a larger organization in navigating liquidity management, Angela's knowledge will provide CNB clients with practical strategies that improve financial efficiency and reduce risk.

Angela relocated to the Austin area in 2022 from Kansas and is passionate about helping businesses build strong financial foundations. She looks forward to working alongside CNB clients, ensuring they have the right financial tools and support to achieve their goals.

About Citizens National Bank

Citizens National Bank, a family-owned institution serving Central Texas since 1900, is dedicated to providing trusted financial services with a focus on personal relationships. CNB remains a financially strong, independent community bank committed to exceeding client expectations, enhancing community quality of life, and investing in its employees. For more information about Citizens National Bank and its comprehensive business banking services, visit cnbanktexas.com.

